Title: A very well made item!

Product Reviews

Comments: This jacket arrived in a very timely fashion. It is very well crafted and fits fine. I was pleased with the quality of this item, as usual. The amount of work and time it takes to produce a jacket such as this, makes it worth every dollar spent!

Title: Mountain Jacket a big success

Comments: The U.S.W.W.II mountain jacket arrived, and I'm pleased. I ordered a 44 reg, my size, and I think it's great and allows me to do a little layering if I want but not overpowering if not. Color is good. Seems the zip fasteners are a better quality than the first runs in the early 2000s. I was a little disappointed at the lack of makers tag and not crazy about the buttons. Also was hoping the odd square pieced section in the lower front of the jacket wouldn't be incorporated in this newer run but, it isn't a deal breaker to me. Overall, I am happy and satisfied with what is a fairly good replica of a really intricate jacket that is very difficult to source today.

Title: Great weight quality reproduction

Comments: Jacket arrived promptly, great fit with room to move. Attention to detail is great but one shortfall was colour of belt it was bare canvas colour instead of being close to jacket colour. Easily remedied with Tamiya Khaki acrylic paint.

Title: A wonderful addition to my WPG collection

Comments: This jacket is very well constructed with all of the proper materials. I was actually shocked by all of the detail and workmanship that went into this piece. I was a tailor, and I can see the amount of detail and time it took to produce this jacket. Well Done!

Product Reviews

Comments: Really nice jacket and solid construction. Great job on the shipping too. Just wish I could have got it in the 48" instead of the 50" as it's a bit large. While at the same time, when I put the belt around it-it will snug it up more. Got room to grow for sure.

Comments: Well done, Jerry, thanks for the effort! ... I am surprised these have not sold better for you. Fit is excellent. Accuracy is basically spot-on, and I have several originals to compare it to. Am thinking I need to pick up another one or two, as they won't be available soon enough. And by the way, the '04 wool turtle neck is perfect for wear underneath! Bravo!

Title: Excellent jacket
Comments: The jacket is very well made of a densely woven cotton poplin material. While it offers good protection against cold winter winds, it should be noted that the jacket is unlined. The wearer must rely on multiple layers worn beneath it to stay truly warm. The five large pockets are a plus. I suspect that if the original jacket had been lined, it would have been one of the most popular and enduring items of cold weather clothing issued by the Army in WWII. Like all my WPG orders, this one was followed up by excellent customer service and exceptionally fast shipping.

Title: Very well made!

Comments: I was very impressed with this jacket when it came. The color is spot on, and after two washings (cold water, hang dry) it has begun to fade nicely and didn't shrink at all. I would recommend this jacket to any 10th Mtn. reenactor out there.
