Title: US Officer's Pink Shade Breeches

Product Reviews

Comments: I've been waiting for these to restock and I was not disappointed. Good price, fast shipping. I'd thought I ordered a size 40 but received a size 44. Good thing too because these fit exactly like they're supposed to. Leg tie laces are included. These are a must have for a WWII Cavalry officer's class A uniform impression. They look great with the pink shade shirt and either the chocolate four pocket or chocolate Ike Jackets. Coupled with the three buckle cavalry boots, you can't go wrong. These breeches are well made, the buttons on my example were securely fastened and included the suspender button on the inside of the waste band. Highly Recommended!!!

Comments: Exemplary customer service. Wajed Malik and Jerry Lee responded quickly on my questions about size and the shipment arrived in under a week. Excellent fit and I look to purchase a second pair nothing better for cold weather riding - and after seeing them several friends intend to purchase a pair as well.

Title: Excellent Garment

Comments: The breeches are outstanding - a bit tight at the waist, but that problem's on me, not the garment! I have looked 'high and low' for years for breeches like this, then by accident stumbled across the existence of What Price Glory/Online Militaria. Most impressive with these breeches is the quality of construction and the fabric. Shipment and delivery speed is nothing short of remarkable. Certainly this is not my last purchase from What Price Glory.

Comments: I am amazed at the high quality of these jodhpurs! I don't know how you do it for the price. I appreciate the thick twill fabric, the excellent tailoring, the reinforcements inside, the perfectly matching thread, buttons, and even lacings. What a find. I was getting desperate until I found WPG.

Comments: After disappearing in a size 40 regular, I got another in 38 short, and this one is perfect (I am 5.10, waist size 38). As regards the fantastic quality, I have nothing to add to my previous review. Delivery was lightning-fast, ordered on Friday, got the parcel on Wednesday. Thank you and keep up the good work!

Title: Officers breeches

Comments: The arrival of a parcel from my military tailors of choice, Messrs. What, Price and Glory, is always a cause for joy. These breeches had me laughing and weeping. They are of an exceptional quality in both material and workmanship. There is not one stitch in the wrong place. Great details from the fabric of the lining to the knee patches and braces buttons. I made, however, a grave mistake in not listening to WPG's advice and ordered a regular length, as well as one waist size up following some of the comments. I wear 36/38 size trousers, and I disappear in the 40 regular breeches, way to wide and long. For future reference, these measure: Flat across waist 21", inner leg length 28,5". Luckily I could sell these on to a fellow equestrian who is more heftily build, and I've ordered a smaller size (38 short).

Title: PURE PERFECTION!

Comments: These breeches are AMAZING! Not only are they perfectly replicated from the originals, they are so finely crafted that they are easily one of the best pieces of clothing I own. They were used for a stage production that was set in the 1930's, and they made the character. Thank you so much for offering these! They're a dream come true!

Title: Drab Breeches

Comments: I ordered my size of 32 in the drab "pink" breeches. They were too tight at the waist and calves. I sent them back for exchange for the next size up (34). Very good exchange system and no hassles. Great team work on behalf of What Price Glory. I am looking forward to the 34's! The breeches are well made and the drab "pink" color is right on the mark!

Product Reviews

Comments: The breeches were of excellent quality and top notch tailoring. To say I was pleased is an understatement, I could not get back to my computer fast enough to order another pair. I ordered quite a bit larger than my size and will have them tailored to fit. They seem to run fairly true to sizing. If you use them for riding they will be plenty tough to do the job. I recently bought a pair of whipcord wool pants that cost twice as much and were not near as nice. The shipping was lightning fast. Order with extreme confidence!!!!!! Keep up the great work WPG!!!!!!

Comments: Exceptional quality! Superb breeches at an amazing price. Traditional breeches are almost impossible to find and these are true to the originals. I am 6' tall and have a 31" inseam. The regulars are just a tad long, so I would definitely second the recommendation that anyone 5'11" or under order the short. Well done, Jerry!

Title: 1920 Style Ridding Breeches

Product Reviews

Comments: I own many pair of ridding breeches that I wear almost daily, whether on my horse, on a photo expedition, or the Art Museum. It difficult find many tailors outside of London with extant patterns able fit up a man proper. Flared breeches really are an article of clothing, as a day suit jacket that a man needs custom-bespoke made for him. These breeches come close, damn close! You can not buy the cavalry twill for this price, let alone have your taylor make them for you for this value. Try around € 350.- (500.-u.s.) * Advice: buy two or three pair and have them tailored or adjusted to you should you like. Buy some in different sizes in case you are overcome by the crème brûlée and Chardoney!

Title: US Army Officer Wool Breeches..SUPER NICE...

Comments: Jerry, I am no expert, like I'm sure some of your customers are, the "breeches" meet or exceed what I expected from you.....Thanx again. Remember me, I got you some entrenching tool covers back several years ago from a Army Surplus Store in downtown Atlanta, GA. That store has been there on Peachtree Street since 1954. I now live in Gilbert, AZ and have since 2005. That store still have several hundred of those left along with several thousand pairs of "leggings".....
