

US B-3 Sheepskin Jackets

WPG - Supplier of WW1 and WW2 Original and Reproduction Militaria

In Stock

30-Jul-25

Code: 100838000

Name: US B-3 Sheepskin Jackets

Description My new B-3 reproductions offer an authentically styled B-3 flight jacket at a much more affordable price. No handwarmer pockets!

Contrasting leather reinforcing patches and glove pocket. The sheepskin does not have the stiff acrylic finish of the originals, and the shearing is a bit shorter than originals. I was reluctant to produce this jacket, but customers were ecstatic about how soft and flexible this jacket is compared to the other reproductions. Also, it is lighter in weight and much more comfortable to wear below 30,000 feet. So you get a truly practical jacket that captures all the authentic styling of the original.

Title: First class

Comments: My stable gets cold in the winter. I always wear a sheepskin to stay warm. This B3 is excellent and will certainly do the job I bought it for. Not only will my horses be snug next winter.

Title: Blown away

Product Reviews

Comments: I was incredibly surprised with the quality of this B-3; I wear a size 40R Cooper A2 and this fit perfectly at a 42; just enough room for a thermal underneath. Great looking and super functional B-3 for a fraction of the price - I don't have to worry about actually using it when the snow hits

Title: Great B3 Jacket

Comments: I own the WPG RAF Irvin and it has been an awesome purchase now 5 years in. My late Father was in the Bloody 100th as a B17F pilot in the 351st Bomp Group. I grew up wearing his B3 till moths and age destroyed it in 65. So all these years I've wanted my own especially since I became an Army Aviator flying AH64 Apache helicopters for 33 years. The WPG B3 size 40R arrived and was just a tad too snug, But it was a beautiful rendition considering the low cost. My 42R arrived and the left sleeve cuff was gathered too tight so I had to return it. That being said both copies were really nicely made, shearling was B6 level thickness which means it will get worn more often. Hopefully my second 42R will have good cuffs because I love the details. If you really wanted to dress it up new straps and buckles would knock it out of the park. Shipping was amazing, 2 days I was trying them on, simply a sharp reproduction of a classic war coat.....

I am incredibly happy that I finally pulled the trigger on this one!

Title: Really Nice Jacket for the Price

Comments: Although WPG owner made some negative comments about this B-3 jacket, I have to say I was very surprised by the overall quality and authenticity of the jacket, especially for the low price. I bought an extra-large which fits me great over clothes. It is a fairly heavy jacket that would be great for very cold conditions. I only wish it had a authentic WWII contract label! Another satisfied customer of WPG!

Product Reviews

Comments: I received my B-3 today and man o man am I impressed. I've wanted one since Memphis Belle came out. There are many retailers selling various knock offs for the same price as WPG does but I'm here to tell you THIS IS IT! This B3 is the fit in appearance, function and unmistakable as the real deal WWII B3. I was unsure after reading the very honest description but it is better than described, WPG is just maintaining their high standard which can't be beat. This B3 is a awesome product and at a dam good price. I'd suggest the B2 cap and repro gloves to go along with it as they too are phenomenal! Excellent Repro WPG keep up the outstanding work and service. You guys truly are 2nd to none.

Title: Beautifull jacket, great service and fast delivery!

Comments: If you don't need an over bulky garnment to fly above 30.000 feets, this B-3 jacket is made for you! Even if it feature some minor compromises with original ones, WPG did a great job. For a very nice price I got a stunning jacket that definitely looks like a USSAF B-3 when worn. Owner of several originals and re-editions sheepskin jackets I can testify this one is the more confortable to wear everyday.

Title: Quality Product

Product Reviews

Comments: So, this review comes a tad.... early I guess one could say. I ordered my chest size hoping that the length of the jacket would be adequate. Unfortunately the sleeves were entirely too short so I am returning for a 42 which after assistance from the WPG staff was determined to be the exact proportions and measurements I need for my build. What I can say is that the leather is soft as is the wool. The colors of the leather are fantastic and I know that when I receive the proper sized exchange, this will be a coat I will wear regularly during the cold North Dakota winters. Only area of concern would be the snaps that fasten the collar to the body of the jacket as they feel like they may pull through the leather before they unsnap and would recommend a reinforcement in this area or utilizing snap hardware that isn't quite as.... stout... in its connection. Also, adding the actual dimensions of the various sizes would be most helpful in determining what size to order.

Title: Nice Jacket

Comments: Very speedy delivery. Package arrived within three days of ordering! This jacket is very comfortable and looks great. It's not an Eastmans, but I knew that prior to ordering, and at 1/4 to the price, I am very happy with this jacket. The leather is very supple and I was worried about the finish so I applied a leather sealer, which made the jacket colors pop. If this jacket ever wears out, I'll buy another!

Title: Two issues....

Product Reviews

Comments: This is my second B-3 from WPG. I had to get another because I'm a 50 and not a 48 anymore since I retired from the Army. These jackets are great for the price and I own some that I bought for a little over a grand and paid too much. But this one was fine except both collar snaps on the chest came right off when unsnapped. But, sense I have a snap kit and to replace them was nothing and the rest of the coat was fine, I did just that and kept it. This one is a better fit and the arms are larger which is nice. the sleeves on the old one kind of felt like tube socks. No, it's not exactly like an original from WW2, but there's damn few people that could pick one out from a lineup.

Title: Amazing Accuracy for the Price

Comments: Front pocket should be tight against the zipper area, buckles incorrect (but can easily be replaced), and cuffs should be narrowed more from the sleeves, but otherwise very good accuracy and an outstanding value. If you want to see this jacket in action check out the movie Fortress. You can pay more, but for this price the opportunity to keep my original B3 as a display piece, is a no brainer.

Title: B-3 Sheepskin

Comments: I really didn't know what to expect, but I really have been wanting this style of B-3 and the price was unbeatable, so I took a leap of faith. I was pleasantly surprised at how nice this jacket is! The style is great, the fit is very true, I really like the darker shade of the sheepskin lining, and it is incredibly comfortable! I wear a 44 in my A-2s and G-1s and they have a true military fit. It is recommended to go up a size if you want to layer, and that is a good idea. But this jacket is so warm and comfortable, you may just want to order your true size as I did, no layers needed. The only drawback I have noticed is that the leather is a bit to soft on some parts of the jacket, and it will eventually rip. But I'll have some repair patchwork done if/when that happens and add even more character to this awesome jacket. Hands down a great B-3, for a great price!!! I may just have to get the RAF version now!!!

Title: Great jacket

Product Reviews

Comments: Great jacket - definately has the 'look' from 10 meters. Unfortunately one of my buckles was bent and skewed - and the jacket has been stored and compressed for sometime, so the leathers creased. But Im being fussy now. Lovely piece of kit. And the collar is just fantastic! Not like these weird modern expensivo repros.

Title: Best Option

Comments: WPG's reproduction of the Type B-3 is one of the few remaining bargains of the genre. For those who need a presentable example of this jacket for routine air operations, it provides the opportunity to save the originals from wear and tear at a very reasonable price. If we beat one up trying to do the Steve McQueen through the B-17's nose hatch, there is no lingering regret that we've destroyed a piece of Americana. I've bought three of these since they were first produced in the late 90's, and all are still presentable. They don't differ in any practical way from the originals (at least the post-1939 versions) but there are slight variations depending on availability of parts. The welting is occasionally wider than prewar specs, and the buckles are not standard, but if you're a purist, they're easily replaced by surplus parts from A-3 pants. All in all, Jerry has done the warbird and reenactor community a great favor by remanufacturing these icons of the AAF... and saved a lot of originals from destruction. If you have to use these jackets on a regular basis, I recommend that you think twice before paying Eastman or Lost World prices. At half the price, these are 7x10, and a real bargain. -JWH, Personal Equipment Officer, 533 Sqdrn

Product Reviews

Comments: I've seen these jackets go for up to $1500, and this was is a STEAL at the price they're charging for it. This is now my most favorite article of clothing I have. That said... One of the two seams connecting the left wrist cuffs have come out on the first day. Luckily there are 2 seams, but it could become a problem later on. Overall, I am really glad I bought it. It's quite a deal.

Title: B-3 Jacket

Comments: While not a perfect reproduction of the original B-3, for the price it is very good and is better than the commercial jackets on the market that are supposed to be a B-3. A good economical alternative to jackets priced at twice as much. We will see how it wears, my Eastman "blew Out" at the elbows after one year, I hope this one lasts longer.

Jacket fits like a glove (thanks to the good advice of Wajed), looks like the real deal and wears comfortable like a WW2 original. Very good item for my WW2 aerial gunner display. Mony/ quality the best deal around. Believe me. Already saving money for the next order. :-))

Comments: Nice jacket worth the money. Only problem with the jacket is that it has a left handed zipper. This can make zipping the jacket a bit difficult due to the wind flap and zipper tang are on the right side.

Title: B-3 Flight Jacket
Comments: I bought my jacket back in 2004 while I was still deployed in Afghanistan. I came home for 2 weeks leave and wanted to take it back with me to wear while flying as a army crewmember on board a blackhawk. I can"t say enough about this jacket. I just hope that WPG will not rise the price on the next one I buy out of reach.
