Title: Excellent Leggings

Comments: Bought a pair of these leggings several years ago, and have used them through numerous events, including several beach landings. They are the perfect "Golden" color for Marine Corps gear, and work well for my WWII and Korean War USMC impressions. A well made product, and true to the originals!

Product Reviews

Comments: I put these in the washing machine with about two cups of bleach (on small load setting) and COLD water. I timed the wash cycle for NO MORE THAN FIVE MINUTES and pulled them out real fast. I got them into a bucket of clean water to stop the bleaching. They turned out exactly like the originals! The bulk of the fabric was a light gold color. The webbing, however, turned to a peach color. This is the best that can be done, unless you want to bleach them white, and start over. I did that with the cotton khakis. I was able to get them to the correct shade of OD by mixing RIT Dark Brown and Dark Green for about fifteen minutes on hot. Warning - HAVE PLENTY OF BLEACH ON HAND- RIT WILL STAIN YOUR PORCELAIN. Good Luck!

Title: WWII USMC Leggings

Comments: I have read some of the comments. It looks like some people actually got Army leggings, but are still happy with them? Also, these have a repro tag and are NOT original issue. I can't believe how simple some people are! Anyway, they look O.K.. A tad too much orange in them I think. The originals were a light gold. The only complaint that I have is that the lacings are not nearly as rugged as your Army lacings. I may have to switch them.
